
Choose The Challenge

“We choose to go to the moon. We choose to go to the moon in this decade and do the other things, not because they are easy, but because they are hard...”
- John F. Kennedy

The lessons from psychology and history are very clear: people are happy when they are challenged by their work. People like solving difficult problems. So when you are making choices about your life and your career, choose what you find most difficult.

What career scares you? (But seems interesting)

What hobby scares you? (But seems interesting)
